Long Island Retreat

On Saturday, October 27, 2007, three EGA chapters from Long Island, New York, held a stitching retreat. Forty members attended from as far away as Florida, Massachusetts, North Carolina, Ohio, and Wisconsin. Suffolk County Chapter hosted the retreat and provided lunch. Peconic Bay Chapter made breakfast noshes. Long Island Chapter supplied dessert.

All members were greeted at the door by Margaret Vickery and Sarah Vickery, who had made pumpkin and ghost nametags. Betty Lombardi led the group in making the Beaded Sparkler Wheel which can be finished into a necklace, bookmark, ornament, or sun catcher. Pat Conway made beaded pumpkin pins as favors and taught attendees how to make origami boxes that can be used to hold orts or to present a small piece of jewelry or a gift card. Ronnie Burk, Carol Bertsch, and Maureen Shea showed us how to turn fleece material into lap robes for nursing homes. Margaret O'Brien demonstrated making socks into dolls for children in hospitals and shelters. Some people worked on unfinished projects. We all had a wonderful day and think that this might be the start of an annual or biennial event.
